Whitman County Library - Disclosure Form

Under Washington Law, Whitman County Library is required to obtain a written disclosure from all applicants for employment or for volunteer positions which will or may involve unsupervised access to children under sixteen years of age, or developmentally disabled persons or vulnerable adults. You must complete this disclosure form in order for your application to be considered.

In addition, under Washington Law, Whitman County Library may make a background inquiry with the Washington State Patrol or other agencies if you are offered and after you accept the position. The background inquiry covers civil adjudications, convictions and disciplinary board final decisions based on certain crimes. Successful completion of this background inquiry is a condition of employment with WCL.

Information obtained from both the disclosure statement and from the background inquiry may not necessarily prevent employment. The information will be a consideration in determining the applicant’s suitability and competence to perform the job and, on this basis, may result in a denial of employment. If you are chosen for the position and a background inquiry is made with the Washington State Patrol as a condition of employment, WCL will notify you of the background inquiry’s response within ten days after human resources receive the response. A copy of the response will also be made available to the applicant upon request.
